Time of Incident: 2204 hours

Incident Case #: 16-28845

Summary:

On Thursday 7/14/16, at about 2204 hours, Bristol Police Department responded to Pine Street at Emmett Street for a motor vehicle accident involving a pedestrian. Upon arrival, officers found a 50 year old female pedestrian, Joyce Reagan-Walsh of Bristol, suffering from a serious head injury. She was transported by ambulance to a trauma hospital in Hartford. The Serious Traffic Accident Reconstruction Team was called in to investigate.

Preliminary investigation revealed that a 2001 Mercury Sable, operated by Marissa Rosner, age 21 of Windsor, was traveling east on Pine Street and collided with Reagan-Walsh, who was crossing south on Pine Street in the area of Valero Gas Station. During the preliminary investigation, Rosner was arrested for DUI.

The accident remains under investigation. Witnesses to the accident are asked to call the Bristol Police Department at 860-584-3032.
